The University of Detroit Mercy Men's Basketball program invites all coaches, men, and women, to attend the Second Annual Detroit Titans Coaches Clinic. The event will take place on Saturday, September 26, at Calihan Hall on the campus of the University of Detroit Mercy. The clinic starts at 8:30 a.m.

The clinic is open to all coaches, from middle school and AAU to college, and will include on the court demonstrations and teachings by UDM head coach Ray McCallum and members of the Detroit Titans men's basketball team, plus special guest speakers, John Beilein, Tubby Smith, Ron Hunter, Pat Sullivan and Scott Duncan. All speakers will be on court demonstrations. Each speaker will focus on a certain aspect of the game as they discuss topics such as building a championship defense, offensive shooting drills, the zone defense, the 1-4 offense, and attacking the zone.

The Second Annual Coaches Clinic is a great opportunity for all coaches to learn and expand their knowledge of basketball with the help of some of today's best coaches.

For more information, please contact the basketball office at 313-993-1731. Day-of-clinic registration will be available beginning at 7:30 a.m., inside Calihan Hall.
